

Mountain View High School

Power Standards

What “some” students should know:

Exceeds Power Standards

Assignments and assessments reflect MASTERY of all course standards.

What “most” students should know:

Power Standards Plus

Assignments and assessments reflect mastery of the power standard and additional state standards.

What “ALL” students should know:

Power Standards

Assignment and assessment reflect competency of the Power Standards

Blooms Taxonomy: Knowledge, Comprehension, Application

ALL Students	Special Education/504/ELL	Special Education/ELL
Interventions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Communicate with Students Keep parents informed Study guides Seating arrangements Oral/Written directions Attend Tutoring Student friendly objectives posted 	Accommodations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Extra Time Teacher prepared notes Different TEST location Assignment reduction Use Academic Lab Use accommodations page (IEP) 	Modifications <ul style="list-style-type: none"> IEP team decision Modified Course code Selected POWER standard Reduction of workload Simplify work Alternative test Simplify/Alternative assignments Use ACADEMIC Lab