

Websites with resources and materials:

Get Ready to Read!

<http://www.getreadytoread.org/early-learning-childhood-basics>

(Recommended: Getting Ready for Kindergarten Tips at the bottom of the page)

<http://www.getreadytoread.org/transition-kindergarten-toolkit/print-the-toolkit>

US Department of Education publications for parents regarding literacy

<https://lincs.ed.gov/node/50>

(Recommended: Shining Stars Toddlers)

<https://lincs.ed.gov/publications/pdf/ShiningStarsToddlers.pdf>

Tip sheets for parents for babies, toddlers, preschoolers, kindergarten, first grade, second grade, third grade (available in 11 languages) – permission to use for educational purposes

<http://www.colorincolorado.org/guides/readingtips/>

Other print guides: <http://www.colorincolorado.org/guides/other/>

Short checklist that helps keep track of skills that children have mastered as they move through the pre-kindergarten – requires free subscription

http://www.education.com/pdf/Ref_Readiness_Indicators/

Search for free flashcards, games, activities, etc.

<https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/>

Websites for parents:

Provides bilingual literacy and ELL information and support for family and educators

<http://www.colorincolorado.org/families/home/>

Ready! Set! School! Empowering parents to teach

www.readysetschool.org

School Family: Your go-to guide for success

www.schoolfamily.com

Scholastic parent guides (select tab to choose age level)

<http://www.scholastic.com/parents/parent-guides/ages-0-2>

School and Home: School Readiness—Preparing Children for Kindergarten and Beyond: Information for Parents (Article by National Association of School Psychologists)

<http://www.nasponline.org/resources/handouts/schoolreadiness.pdf>

Family Education – School and Learning

(Search by grade level or subject, also parent involvement, study skills, etc.)

<http://school.familyeducation.com/educational-issues/parents-and-school/34360.html>