In order to participate, you must be an active COSA member!

This Academy series is dedicated to supporting new Directors and Coordinators during their first, second or third years serving in their roles. The series will focus on current topics, legislation and requirements in Special Education and will include networking and mentorship opportunities from veteran colleagues, and ODE staff. Academy participants must be active members of COSA.

Each Academy participant will have access to 24/7 mentorship. The facilitators of the Special Education Academy have decades of experience and are available for support throughout the year.

	INCLUSIONS	PRICE
Year-Long Academy Experience	Complimentary registration for the SpEd conference in October and the Law conference in December	$895
