Early Childhood PW-PBIS Readiness Checklist for Family Child Care Providers

Items to Consider	Yes	No	N/A
Are you committed to making a change in your program? (*)
If, applicable is your staffing structure stable? (*)
Does your childcare program currently have policies and/or procedures in place for supporting care providers who, within the child care setting, have children with behaviors that are disturbing to others?
Do you have assistance from outside resources when children with behaviors disturbing to others are in your care?
Does your childcare program have policies and/or procedures in place for supporting children with behaviors that are disturbing to others?
Do you engage in ongoing professional development?
Is your childcare program part of the QRIS (Quality Rating and Improvement) system?
Do you have an opportunity to reflect on your practices?
If applicable, does your childcare program currently have in place policies/procedures for staff feedback?
Does your child care program currently have policies/procedures that encourage active family participation?
Can you and your staff (if applicable) commit time and energy to a new initiative? (*)
In your estimation, does your child care program have a positive climate?
In your estimation, do you and if applicable other staff have a good understanding of social emotional development for the age that they work with?
In your estimation, do you and other staff have a good understanding of how to support social emotional development in the children they work with?
In your estimation, do you and other staff use developmentally appropriate practices with the children you care for?
Total

Add up your totals.

If you have more boxes that are marked "yes" than "no," share your accomplishments with others. Assess if your practices are equitable across the persons you serve.

If you have more boxes that are marked "no" than "yes," you might want to consider addressing those items before embarking upon a program-wide implementation.

Questions with an asterisks (*) should be marked "yes" to be considered fully implemented.