Jewell School District is a unique PK-12 District located in the coast range of Northwest Oregon. The community is comprised of a diverse population ranging from long-time residents, to homesteaders, to commuters into high tech western Washington County and the coast. The school prides itself on very small class sizes and meeting each student's needs. The school itself is a beautiful ten year old facility situated on 80 acres in the Nehalem River Valley of Clatsop County. The school is just two miles from the Jewell Wildlife Refuge featuring one of the largest elk herds in the northwest. Our faculty is hard working, energetic, professional and passionate about our students and their learning. We are looking for the perfect new member of our instructional team! Please peruse our student designed website at www.jewell.k12.or.us.
